John W. Welford, Careless Chauffeur, Released from Jail to be Rearrested-Artilley Corps Ready for Field Day -Auto Accident Near Weguetequock-Busy Month for District Nurses-Seized Liquor Ordered Destroyed

John V. Welford, who was chauffeur for Mr. McCrea of Pittsburg, a summer cottager at Watch Hill, has had his troubles for the careless driving of an automobile, which have been continuous for over a year, and the end is not yet. While driving his machine on the Watch Hill road about a year ago on a dark night he ran into an express wagon driven by Frank Collins and owned by James Collins. Mr. Collins was thrown out and sustained some injuries.

Welford was arrested for the reckless driving of the machine and also for neglecting to stop his machine after the mishap and ascertaining the extent of the damages and rendering assistance. These cases were started in the Third district court and traveled to the superior and supreme courts, and finally back to the superior court for the sentence of Welford, He was fined heavily in both cases and also received a jail sentence of thirty days in Cranston.

court for the sentence of Welford, He was fined heavily in both cases and also received a jail sentence of thirty days in Cranston.

His term in jail expired Tuesday and he was arrested in a civil suit for damages on complaint of James Collins, who seeks to recover $500 in damages. He was unable to furnish the required bond and was returned to jail with board paid, to await trial or satisfy the claims for damages.

In the other cases the fines were paid, as were also the costs in the jail sentence, and everything was done that was possible to prevent Welford from going to jail, but the action of the supreme court of the state prevailed, and money could not save Welford from the jail sentence. Welford's employer has been notified of the present phase of the case and it is probable that bonds will be furnished and Welford released.
